Rev. P. S. F. TS'O, THE VICAR OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH,

The Rev. P. S. F. Ts'o who is the fourth son of the late Commendador S. I. Ts'o of the Portuguese Government, a member of the Legislative Council of Macao, and who is also a nephew of the Hon. Dr. S. W. Ts'o, was born in 1895 in Macao, to which his ancestors migrated from Chung Shan District, Kwangtung.

Coming to Hongkong in 1910, he studied in St. Paul's College, till he graduated. After his graduation, he joined the teaching staff of his mother school for two years.

Then he left Hongkong for the study of theology at the Union Theological College Canton. After he graduated from the Union Theological College in 1919, he became a secretary to Archdeacon E. J. Barnett, who was then the Secretary of the Church Missionary Society, South China.

In 1923, a call came from Australia. He responded to the call and accepted the invitation from the Mission of the Epiphany, Melbourne. He went there as Chaplain to the Chinese Mission and worked under the late Archbishop H. C. Lees. When he was there, he was able to attend the Australia Church Congress in 1925.

He stayed in Australia till the year 1927 and landed in Hongkong in January, 1928. On the 11th of February, in the same year, he was married at the True Light Hall by Bishop Mok Shan Tsang, to Miss Amy Hoh, a teacher in the True Light Middle School. He was inducted as vicar of St. Paul's Church by Bishop Duppy a month after his marriage.

Mr. Ts'o is known as an able interpreter. During the visits of Dr. Sherwood Fiddly and Dr. Stanley Jones to the colony, he was asked to be their interpreter. His hobby is reading. He takes great interest in the Art of Preaching and Psycho-analysis.

Mr. Ts'o is a tutor of the Union Theological College Canton on the art of Preaching, a councillor of the League of Nations' Society Hongkong, a member of the Council of St. Paul's College, of St. Paul's Girls' College and of the True Light School, Hongkong, an English Secretary of the United Council of the Hongkong Chinese Christian Churches, a member of the Standing Committee of the Kwang Tuet Diocese of Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui, a director of the Anti-Mutual Society and of the Bible Society of South China, and a member of the Assistant Committee of the Chinese Home Missionary Society.
