Mr. LO CHUNG-WAN.

Mr. Lo Chung-wan is the Compradore of the Netherlands Trading Society, and a very prominent figure associated with the commerce of Hongkong, Holland and the Dutch East Indies.

Born in Chungshan District, Kwangtung Province, he was educated at the Queen's College. Upon completing his education, he was offered a position in that College as a Member of the Teaching Staffs.

His vocation, however, proved to be mercantile, so he resigned from the College and entered the Commercial Circle.

About twenty-five years ago, he joined the Netherlands Trading Society and has become the Compradore of that very large and respectable Banking Institution.

Upon his completion of a quarter century of meritorious service, he was invited to a large reception tendered by the Bank and which was attended by many prominent people of Hongkong.

In a speech made by the Chief Official of the Bank, Mr. Lo Chung-wan's services were very highly eulogized and he was presented with a very antique and costly Dutch Clock. The high official of the bank remarked that Mr. Lo Chung-wan's good qualities were very indolent to that of the clock for in as much as the clock had for a long period given very accurate reports of the time and positions of the moon etc., Mr. Lo Chung-wan likewise had been very useful to the officials and clients of the bank by his supply of very useful trade informations and assistances. The Consul for the Netherlands Mr. M. H. van Schravren spoke very highly of Mr. Lo Chung-wan in his speech, remarking to the gathering that in connection with most excellent services rendered by Mr. Lo Chung-wan, Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands was most graciously pleased in awarding him with the very coveted and most Excellent Order of the Orange of Nassau.

Mr. Lo Chung-wan was also in the Directorate of the Tung Wah Hospital and the Yee Leung Kuk and also enjoyed the confidence of the Hongkong Government in 1925 when appointed to the important position of Postal Censor which position he very capably held and was suitably thanked by the Hongkong Government.

Besides his many important activities, Mr. Lo Chung-wan is in the Directorate of the internationally known firm of Department Stores, The Sun Co., Ltd., operating Chain Store in China and the huge building in Nanking Road, Shanghai. He is also a Director of Nanyang Motor Bus, The Kong On S. S. Co., the National Commercial & Savings Bank, and The Wing On Life Insurance Co., Ltd., and is in the Committee of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Lo Chung-wan is also the Compradore of the Bank 'Compradores' Association of Hongkong, a very important and potential financial association in Hongkong.
