Mr. LAM MING FAN.

One of the most prominent merchants in Hongkong is Mr. Lam Ming Fan of the Kowloon Motor Bus Co., Ltd. He is a native of Sun - Wui District, Kwangtung Province, and was born in 1902.

He obtained a thorough education from the Queen's College, where he was graduated in the year 1920.

Mr. Lam began his business career with the post of a typist in the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Co., Ltd. A few months later, he worked as a stenographer in the Admiral Line. He attached to the post for about two years and then turned out to work as Correspondent in the Hongkong Excavation Pile - Driving & Construction Co., Ltd., (formerly China-American Industrial Developing Co.)

Three years later, he resigned the post and co-operated with Mr. C. K. Tang and established the Republic Motor Co. of China dealing in Motor Car accessory parts and representing products of the Chrysler Motor Co. The firm did not prove a success to Mr. Lam and a few years later it was closed.

In 1920, the communication of the Kowloon Peninsula was not so well developed. Though the Kowloon Motor Bus Co., had long been established, it possessed only a narrow scope. Mr. Lam was secretary of the company then. After his own business proved a failure, he devoted his main interest in the latter. Until 1931, when the company is organized and presented the monopoly from the Hongkong Government, Mr. Lam began to put his action his scheme of improving and expanding the business. To-day, the prosperity of the firm reaches the climax.

Mr. Lam takes a great interest in sports. He has been Captain of those famous basket-ball teams such as South China Athletic Association and the Chinese Young Men Christian Association. He likes swimming, and such like games. His interest in aviation is very much, so three years ago, he bought a training-plane and learned the craft of it.

He is the Chairman of the sports Club, committee member of Hongkong Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, & Member of Numerous Clubs & Associations.

Married in 1925, Mr. Lam has two boys and two girls. They are receiving their education in local schools.
