Mr. CHEUNG SHUI TONG.

Mr. Cheong Shui Tong is one of the most outstanding personages amongst the Chinese banking magnates of Hongkong. He is a native of Sun-wui District, Kwangtung Province and was born in 1892.

He was educated in the Military School of Kwangtung and the Munition School of Army and Navy in Peking.

It 1926 Mr. Cheong was appointed a teaching staff in the Whampo Military and Political School Kwangtung, and concurrently he was captain of the main troop.

Later he became an important figure in the Financial Department of the National Army, following the troop went northwards. Two years later Mr. Cheung was appointed Assistant in the Managing Department of the National Army in Nanking, the new Capital. Before long, he was promoted manager of the sub-department in Hankow.

It was not until the 4th National Army was founded that Mr. Cheung was appointed Chief of the Managing Department of the troop. Thousands of dollars of munition were devised and raised by him at that time; so when he resigned from the post, he was highly recommended by his superiors for his ability and consciousness.

The Bank of Kwangsi established in Hongkong in 1930 and Mr. Cheung was appointed Sub-manager of the organization. In the nearest past, he was promoted manager of the same institute.

In short, Mr. Cheung is not only an adept of Financial administration but also a smart man in politics and in military affairs.
